Summary

My goals as a Business Technology Management student are motivated by my passion for learning and creativity. I am intrigued by Toronto Metropolitan University's exchange program's ability to immerse oneself in other cultures and ideas as I am eager to expand my horizons. I approach every task with a combination of agility and excitement, driven by my passion for using technology to generate strategic solutions. I'm dedicated to creating a positive impact on both local and global communities, and I work well in groups that encourage creativity and innovation.
